The Pariah Newsletter is proud to announce that we have come out with our first investigative article! We also take pride in the fact that we were the first news outlet to release anything of substance from the CNN audio leaks. If you're not familiar, James O' keefe of Project Veritas released over 200 hours of audio from the CNN newsroom in Atlanta Georgia. He encouraged independent investigators to go through the audio to find anything that might be detrimental to CNNs name. After learning this, our team members began scouring through the audio and found a few incriminating pieces where; CNN insiders talk about selectively picking who it is they interview, admit to publishing a skewed poll and have a discussion possibly relating to the pizzagate conspiracy. Click on the links below to learn more!
